

Interim Review of Polling Districts and Polling Places (Parliamentary Elections) Regulations 2006

Representation of the People Act 1983 - Sections 18A, 18B, 18C, 18D and 18E and Schedule A1 (as amended by section 17 of the Electoral Registration and Administration Act 2013)

London Borough of Barnet Interim Review of Polling Districts and Places

In accordance with the requirements of section 18C of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (as amended) and the decision of the Council's General Functions Committee on 11 November 2014 (to review polling arrangements following all borough-wide elections), notice is hereby given that the London Borough of Barnet is undertaking an interim review of polling districts and polling places for use in connection with all statutory elections held within the borough.

The interim review will commence on Friday 27 January 2017 and will be completed in sufficient time to enable the Electoral Registration Officer to make any alterations necessary to the register of electors (including to elector numbers) when the monthly update is published on Tuesday 2 May 2017.

The (Acting) Returning Officer (ARO) for the three Parliamentary constituencies represented within the borough will make a proposal on the arrangements for all current polling districts and polling places. A copy of the ARO's proposals may be obtained by contacting the London Borough of Barnet's Electoral Services using the details at a) or b) below or by telephone on 020 8359 5577.

Any elector registered in the area of the London Borough of Barnet may make a representation on any existing polling district and/or polling place or on the ARO's proposals and may suggest alternative venues and locations to an existing polling place. Any such representations should be delivered:

- a) by hand/post to: Electoral Services, Building Two, North London Business Park, Oakleigh Road South, London N11 1NP or
- b) by email to: Electionsprojectoffice@barnet.gov.uk

In addition to this, representations on any proposed changes will be sought from persons who are considered to have particular expertise in relation to access to premises or facilities for persons who have different forms of disability.

A list of the locations for the borough's current polling places is available on the London Borough of Barnet's website or can be requested (along with details of polling district boundaries) by contacting Electoral Services using the details at a) or b) above or by telephone on 020 8359 5577.

Representations submitted on existing arrangements must reach the Electoral Services Office by no later than 5pm on Friday 24 February 2017.

Please note: Copies of all representations received in relation to the review will be submitted to the Council's General Functions Committee and will also be made available to the general public.
