Dear Paul

I would welcome your opinion on the matter of Non Duly Made Objections on the Pre-Submission Amendments. Our approach is set out in the Consultation Statement at 6.2.6 and 6.2.7 which forms our response. Our approach reflects soundings of other authorities with adopted Core Strategies. My reaction to his question is to say it is up to the Inspector if he wants to consider the reps and that we have clearly set out the reasons why these should not be considered.

I would welcome your initial views on our approach

Regards

Nick
